All APA members receive Planning magazine. To accord with postal regulations, $30 of membership dues support the magazine. Dues are not tax-deductible as a charitable contribution. Dues may be considered as a business expense, except 17 percent of California chapter dues, which are allocated to chapter lobbying costs.

<sup>1</sup>This will be your email address of record. APA will use it to conduct electronic voting, deliver member benefits, and perform other administrative tasks.

<sup>2</sup>Student verification required — please complete the form above.

Former APA members are not eligible to re-join as student members.

Joining as a student member enters you into APA's Early Career Membership Program. Learn more at planning.org/earlycareer.

<sup>3</sup>APA welcomes members from outside the U.S. Learn more and join at planning.org/join/international.

APA also offers affordable group planning board membership to agencies that enroll multiple commissioners. Learn more at planning.org/join/commissioners.

Prices are subject to change.
