Co-leads

All other volunteer positions may be self-nominated or nominated by any steering committee member that has attended at least two consecutive steering committee meetings. Decision-Making
Key decisions regarding future interest group actions, including use of interest group funds must be approved through the following process, as facilitated by Interest Group Co-Leads:

1. A steering committee member must make a motion describing the proposed interest group action (e.g., spend interest group funds to support a student scholarship to attend the National Planning Conference, major revision to strategic plan components, approve and/or move forward with a division proposal to NPC).
2. A second steering committee member must second the motion.
3. Co-leads will facilitate any discussion related to the motion, including possible amendments.
4. Co-leads will call for a vote on the original and/or amended motion by the steering committee at any regular conference call where a quorum of at least 10 members are present.
5. A simple majority will constitute approval of the motion and the group can discuss necessary next steps. A tie or less than simple majority will constitute a failed motion. For failed motions, co-leads can call for further discussion or request additional information be shared with the steering committee during or at a later meeting to inform a reconsideration, revised motion, or revote.
