BYLAWS OF THE GOLD COAST SECTION, FLORIDA CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN PLANNING ASSOCIATION

These bylaws and operating guidelines have been adopted and are effective as of the date of approval by the membership.

Part I - GENERAL PROVISIONS

A. Name and Service Area. The name of this Section is the Gold Coast Section (GCS), Florida Chapter of the American Planning Association (APA), hereinafter called the Section. The area served by the Section includes Miami-Dade and Monroe Counties, State of Florida.

B. Section Objectives. The objectives of the Section include, but are not limited to the following:

1. To provide a forum for exchange of planning ideas and experiences in the Section area.
2. To provide a vehicle for planners to develop and express positions on issues affecting the quality of life in South Florida.
3. To promote professional growth opportunities for planning professionals in the South Florida region, and the area served by the Section in particular.
4. To represent and advance the interests and welfare of the Section and its members within the Florida Chapter and APA in general.
5. To increase public awareness and understanding of the planning process and profession, as well as the benefits that both can bring to South Florida communities.
6. To support planning throughout the State of Florida by participation in local, regional and State affairs.
7. To work in concert with other organizations of like purpose to foster and achieve mutual goals and objectives, including the provision of CM-approved programs and opportunities.
8. To foster participation in the American Planning Association and its Florida Chapter activities.

C. Section Activities. All activities of the Section shall conform to the law, the bylaws of the Florida Chapter and the bylaws of APA.

Part II – MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

A. Participating Membership. All members of the Florida Chapter of APA whose address of record is within the Section area shall automatically be members of the Section.

B. Membership Qualifications.

1. Members shall be considered in good standing who have paid all applicable dues and assessments.
2. Persons who are not members of APA or the Florida Chapter may become Section-only members upon submittal of a Section membership application and payment of any established annual dues, and will then be eligible to vote in Section elections.

3. Section members whose address of record is outside of the Section area and Section-only members are not eligible to hold office in the Section.

4. Student members of APA and the Florida Chapter shall be considered members of the Section as long as their dues are current and they remain in good standing of their Student status.

C. Dues. Applicable Section-only dues shall be established by the Executive Committee. The rate of dues may be evaluated from time to time. For new members, changes in the rate of dues assessed come into effect 30 days after Board approval. For current members, the change in rate of dues shall come into effect as of their next annual dues assessment date. Dues of Chapter members are collected by the Florida Chapter or by APA. Dues of student members are collected by APA.

Part III - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND TERMS OF SERVICE

A. Composition, Duties, and Responsibilities. The Section’s Executive Committee shall consist of the Section Chair, Vice-Chair/Chair-Elect, Treasurer, Secretary, Professional Development Officer, and Immediate Past Chair. Members of the Executive Committee shall each have one vote and a simple majority (51%) of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum.

The Executive Committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

1. To attend all Executive Committee meetings. (Attendance may be effected via conference call.)

2. To transact the business of the Section between meetings, and to report thereon to the Section Board at its next regular meeting.

3. To effectuate the motions and policies agreed upon by the members.

4. To prepare and approve an annual budget.

5. To be custodian of all Section property and funds and to authorize and approve all contracts and expenditures but not to incur liabilities exceeding the amount of unappropriated funds in the Section treasury.

6. To review and approve the amount of payment of annual membership dues and any other special assessments to be made of Section members.

7. To represent the interests of the Section on the Florida Chapter’s Executive Committee.

8. To approve or reject applications for Section membership and appointments to the Committees of the Section.

9. To appoint duly qualified members to serve the unexpired term of any position on the Executive Committee in accordance with these bylaws.

10. To make policy in the name of the Executive Committee, when it is not possible for the Section members to take timely action.
B. Eligibility for Office. With the exception of Section-only members, any Section member in good standing whose address of record is within the Section area is eligible to hold office in the Section.

C. Terms of Office. The term of office of each of the Section Officers shall be for two (2) years, beginning at the first meeting following the certification of the election results. No officer shall serve more than two (2) consecutive two-year (2) terms in the same elected office.

1. All elected officers shall remain in office until their elected successors are installed, become ineligible to hold Section office, or upon their resignation.

2. With the exception of the offices of Chair and Vice Chair/Chair Elect, the Executive Committee shall, by appointment, fill vacancies in an office occurring between elections. Appointments shall be effected by majority (51%) vote of the remaining Executive Board members. Officers so appointed shall hold office for the balance of the current term or until their successors are elected and installed.

3. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Vice Chair/Chair Elect, the Executive Committee shall schedule a special election within ninety (90) days, unless the vacancy occurs within six (6) months of the regular election or when the vacancy occurs as a result of Chairship succession as provided for in Part III, Section C.5. When such vacancy occurs within six (6) months of a regular election, at the next regular election, a special direct election for Chair-elect shall be conducted at least thirty (30) days before the next regular election, with election certification occurring before the regular election’s closing of nominations. This Chair-elect shall assume the Chairship along with the rest of the Board members at the next regular elections. A new Vice-Chair/Chair-Elect shall be elected at the next regular election and shall hold that respective office for the following two (2) year term.

4. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Chair, if the remaining term is for a period of less than one (1) year, the Vice Chair/Chair Elect shall immediately take office for the remainder of the term as well as for the following two-year (2) period. In this circumstance, the vacancy thereby created shall not be filled until the next regular election, and duties of the vacated Vice Chair/Chair Elect position may be assigned at the discretion of the new Chair to the Immediate Past Chair, or to another Board member upon consultation with the Board.

5. When a vacancy in the office of Chair occurs and the remaining term is for a period of one (1) year or more, the Vice Chair/Chair Elect shall immediately become the Chair for the remainder of the term. The Executive Committee shall schedule a special election for an interim Vice-Chair within ninety (90) days of the succession. This Vice-Chair shall not be a Chair-elect, but will otherwise carry out the functions of the Vice-Chair position. A special direct election for Chair-elect shall be conducted at least thirty (30) days before the next regular election, with election certification occurring before the regular election’s closing of nominations. This Chair-elect shall assume the Chairship along with the rest of the Board members at the next regular elections. The incumbent Chair may, at his or her discretion, be a nominee. If the incumbent Chair is elected, that term will be considered a second term and term limits shall apply. A new Vice-Chair/Chair-Elect shall be elected at the next regular election and shall hold that respective office for the following two (2) year term.

D. Officers Duties and Responsibilities.

3. To serve as the Section’s liaison with the Florida Chapter’s Vice President for Professional Development Officer and Vice President for Certification Maintenance.

4. To manage the Section’s AICP Certification Maintenance Program and coordinate with Section members.

5. To perform other duties and exercise authority as delegated by the Chair as necessary to carry out business of the Section.

IMMEDIATE PAST CHAIR

1. To mentor and advise elected and appointed volunteers as necessary.

2. To make recommendations to the Chair for Board of Directors and committee appointments.

3. To identify, recruit and cultivate future Board leaders.

4. To perform other duties and exercise authority as delegated by the Chair as necessary to carry out the business of the Section.

Part IV - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

In addition to the Executive Committee, the business of the Section shall be managed by the Board of Directors, whose members shall be appointed by the Chair to assist the Section in achieving its objectives.

A. Eligibility.

1. Members of the Board of Directors shall be members in good standing of the Section.

2. As non-elected officers, the Directors shall not be part of the required quorum for voting on motions.

3. Board Directors shall be required to attend at least 50% of all regularly scheduled meetings of the Executive Committee, and may participate via conference call.

4. Any Director unable to fulfill the attendance requirement should decline the appointment. Alternatively, the Executive Committee may, by majority vote (51%), appoint another Director.

5. Members of the Board of Directors not fulfilling their duties may be removed by majority vote (51%) of the Executive Committee.
B. Standing Committees. The Section shall have the following standing committees to assist the Section in achieving its objectives. The Chair, with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee, shall appoint members to these committees. A new Chair may reappoint or make new appointments.

- Event Programming: Coordinates with the Professional Development Officer in determining and implementing content and format of all Section professional development activities, as well as organizing social activities.
- Communications: Coordinates and executes the publicity and promotion of the Section and all its activities, as authorized by the Executive Committee; coordinates the publication and distribution of a Section newsletter.
- Membership: Coordinates with the Vice Chair/Chair-Elect and the Secretary the maintenance of the Section membership roster, and efforts to maintain and expand the membership.
- Sponsorship: Fundraises and seeks monetary and in-kind sponsorships for the Section and its educational and social programs to support the financial health of the organization; works with the Treasurer and the Event Programming Committee to develop a budget for sponsorships
- Legislative: Represents the Section on the Florida Chapter’s Legislative Policy Committee, periodically briefing Section members on legislative action that may impact their interests and assisting in the implementation of the Section and Chapter’s legislative priorities.
- Awards: Calls for, receives, and reviews nominations for project and individual awards in time for the Section’s annual awards ceremony (typically part of the Section’s annual holiday event); proposes new awards to the Executive Committee.
- Young Planners Group (YPG): A representative acting as a liaison between the Section and statewide YPG for the coordination of YPG-oriented activities and joint YPG/Section events.
- Certificate Maintenance: Assists the Professional Development Officer in registering Certification Maintenance (CM) credits for Section events, or for affiliated organizations as deemed appropriate by the Chair.

C. Ad Hoc Committees. The Chair, with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee, may appoint ad hoc committees to study, report and make recommendations on specific issues. Ad hoc committees shall expire with the presentation of a final report on the issue under study to the Executive Committee.

Part V - ELECTIONS, VACANCIES, AND VOTING

A. Nomination and Election of Officers. During election years a Nominating Committee of three (3) or more Board members shall be appointed by the Chair at least three (3) meetings in advance of the Annual Meeting. The Nominating Committee shall solicit nominations for officers from the Section membership, and shall contact all nominees to gain their acceptance of the nomination and willingness to serve if elected. At least one (1) eligible Section member (as described in Part III, Section B) shall be nominated to fill each office, with the exception of special elections for Chair, where at least two (2) eligible Section members shall be nominated to fill the office. Nominees shall only stand for election for one (1) position.

A list of all interested nominees running for office shall be presented to the Section membership at least thirty (30) days prior the election deadline. Notice and voting may be done by mailed ballot or electronic means (e.g., website, email, etc.). Ballots must be received by no later than 5 pm on the day prior to the Annual Meeting, at which time they will be opened and counted by tellers appointed by the Chair. Appointed tellers cannot be candidates in the election. The candidate receiving the plurality of the vote for each office shall be the winner. In the event of a tie vote, the outgoing Executive Committee, with the exception of any candidate(s) for said tied position, shall declare a winner by majority (51%) vote. An official announcement of elected Section Officers will be made and the new Executive Committee shall be installed at the Annual Meeting.

B. Voting

1. Eligible members in good standing shall receive one (1) vote for each election or proposed bylaws amendment.
2. Unless otherwise provided for within these bylaws, decisions requiring a vote shall be effected through majority vote (51%) of the members voting, provided, when deemed necessary by these bylaws, a quorum is present.

Part VI - MEETINGS

A. Annual Section Meeting. There shall be an Annual Section Meeting at a time and place to be determined by the Executive Committee each fall. At least thirty (30)-days’ notice of this meeting shall be given to the all members. Additional meetings may be called by the Chair as needed, or upon failure by the Chair to call required meetings, by the Executive Committee.

B. Board Meetings. There shall be regular monthly Board meetings to fulfill the objective of the Section. The Board meeting schedule will be determined annually by the Executive Committee and subject to change by majority vote (51%).

C. Minutes of Meetings. The minutes of any business conducted at Section and Board meetings shall be kept by the Secretary and made a part of the permanent record of the Section. During election years, the Annual Meeting shall be recorded by the retiring Secretary. A copy of all minutes shall be filed annually with the Secretary and the Executive Director of the Florida Chapter.

Part VII - AMENDMENTS

Upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee or upon petition of at least 20 percent of the members of the Section, any proposed amendment to these bylaws shall, after discussion at a Section meeting, be submitted to the Secretary together with a ballot to the Members. For adoption, any amendment shall require a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote. A minimum of fifteen (15) days from the date of mailing or other electronic means of such ballot shall be allowed for the return of ballots. The results shall be certified immediately upon receipt of ballots postmarked or received by the voting deadline. The Executive Committee may provide for the written balloting required herein to be conducted at the same Section meeting at which any proposed amendment is discussed by the membership.

Two (2) copies of these bylaws and all subsequent amendments shall be filed with the Secretary and the Executive Director of the Florida Chapter American Planning Association.
