IS YOUR CAREER HEADED IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION?

JOIN US TO CHART A PATH THAT IS RIGHT FOR YOU!

WHAT: EMERGING PROFESSIONALS LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP.

WHEN: TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 2013 – 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

WHERE: ROSEN CENTER, ORLANDO, FLORIDA (APA FLORIDA ANNUAL CONFERENCE)

WHO: Designed for planners with less than five years of professional experience and students who just graduated.

THE WORKSHOP INCLUDES:

- Go Out and Fetch Your Future. Develop your personal career action plan. Identify long and short-term goals and strategies.

- Getting Things Done. How to be a Valued Employee. Identify critical hard and soft skills for success. Learn what employers want employees to know and make the most of mistakes,

- Communicating Successfully. Building the verbal and non-verbal communication skills that matter. Learn how to frame a compelling message, use the language that people want to hear, take your presentation skills to the next level and learn tips for thinking on your feet.

- Planning Your Career. Where do you want to be in ten years? Twenty years?

Learn from these experienced leaders/managers:

- Mary Kay Peck, FAICP
  MKPeck Associates

- Owen Beitsch, PhD, FAICP, CRE
  Real Estate Research Consultants, Inc.
  A GAI Company

- Merle Bishop, FAICP, CPM
  Kimley Horn and Associates, Inc.

- Mary Anne Bowie, FAICP
  Mary Anne G Bowie Associates, Inc.

- Robert Mulhere, FAICP
  Director of Planning
  Hole Montes, Inc.

- Richard Unger, FAICP
  Community Planning Advocates

COST: $50 with Conference registration / $60 for this session only (APA Members)

(Covers the cost of workshop handouts, refreshments and a box lunch)

Register by going to the APA Florida web-site (www.floridaplanning.org) and click on "CONFERENCE"

Link: http://www.floridaplanning.org/conference/index.asp